Overview of Becoming a HAL Project Changemaker Course 1

In this online course, we explore what it means to become a HAL Project Changemaker, and what the core skills are of a HAL Project Changemaker. We dig into a sort of SWOT analysis looking at some of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats in the inner-outer work of a HAL Project Changemaker. The HAL Project Changemaker is not just about innovation suitable for our current reality challenges but also the start-up of the implementation processes of the higher order sciences.

Included in the course material are 9 videos/podcasts plus extras from the HAL Project Changemaker News & Processes, since they overlap. The course material will be sent to you in the welcome email, along with access to the private Vimeo Group holding the videos.

The duration of all videos is between 30-55 min each.
