The HAL New Business & Progression Project

In the HAL New Business Methods & Concepts, we work the New Reality Challenges and the changes within the Base Program, as our world undergoes its transition processes, from the old ways to the ways of the future humanities.

We investigate what this means in terms of starting up new business models, as well as the holographic-energetic implementation processes these new models demand.

In this course, the focus is on the HAL New Business & Progression Project Start-up processes. The idea is to add progression principles and the transformation dynamics to current business models.

Included in the course material are 10 videos/podcasts, explaining the ideas as well as going over the information on the webpage

The course material will be sent to you in the welcome email, along with access to the private Vimeo Group holding the videos.

The duration of all videos is between 30-55 min each.

The 2 Email Questions

You have the possibility to write 2 email questions to me regarding the content of the videos, while you do the course. Naturally, the questions are ONLY to the material of the course and not any personal issues. For this you can do a HOPE Session, which you find on randigreen.one.
