

The HAL Integration Class 6 Basics

The HAL Academy Online Courses © All Rights Reserved Randi Green

In this course, we blast through and sum up the basic material into 6 videos in order to create synthesis and a broad overview of the work. With this class, you then have all the dots to go back into the HAL Classes & Courses and redo them with the end-result in mind and what you are to achieve with the classes.

Overview of Content

The course consists of 6 videos with no text. The information you need is in the videos. Also read the recommended books given to you in the welcome email.

The 2 Email Q&As

It is possible to write two email questions to me, while you are doing this course. This option lasts for two months after the purchase of the course. I will answer your questions in the manner that is suitable.

However, most will be understood as the classes proceed, and therefore you are to write down all of your questions in a notebook, when you do the classes, and you will discover that most have been answered in the later videos.

HAL Sessions – Strongly Recommended

I recommend that you after, or during, the course do HAL Coaching. You find this option at randigreen.one
