

The HAL Academy – Understanding the Call-Outs & the Final Steps

Randi Green © 2022

In this series of podcasts, the understanding of the 4th Cycle Call-Outs and the Final Steps of the Progression Work, will be discussed.

The podcasts generate an overview of some of the issues that were not discussed in the Progression Work Course material, as well as adding the last pieces of the puzzle of the Progression Work, leading to the next steps of the 5th Cycle Activation Work.

Included in the price are 8 podcasts explaining what the Call-Outs are about, I provide some ideas regarding Progression Couples, on the topics of Gender issues in the activation processes, and the bridge into the 5th cycle activation challenges, beginning with the 2025 timeline upgrades and the future technologies we are to grasp to truly meet the criteria of the division of our reality, which will unfold in the years to come.

The duration of each video is between 35-55 min.

Further information will be explained in the welcome email, along with access to the private Vimeo Group holding the videos.

The 2 Email Questions

You have the possibility of 2 email questions regarding the content of the videos. This offer expires 2 months after the buy. Naturally, the questions are ONLY to the material in the videos and not any personal issues. And if they go too deep, I am not able to answer them either. For both personal issues and the deeper enquiry of the timeline material, you are to do the HAL Sessions.
